Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Release Form Instructions

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

FERPA is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records, both financial and academic. If the student is 18 years or older or is attending a postsecondary educational institution, the privacy rights are the students’ such that any release of student record information must be done with the student’s explicit written consent except in limited circumstances. One of those circumstances is when the student’s parent(s)/guardian(s) claims the student as a dependent on their Federal Income Tax Return. Florida Statute Section 1006.52 follows FERPA regarding this.

Instructions

Students complete Part A of the accompanying form.
Under this part, the student is authorizing their parent, legal guardian, or other third party, full access to the student’s financial or educational records.

Parent(s)/Guardian(s) complete Part B of the accompanying form.
In lieu of a dependent student’s signed release, the parent or legal guardian must complete this section and provide 1) a copy of the most recent year’s Federal Income Tax Return to certify that the student is a dependent in accordance with Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code, and 2) photo identification that positively identifies the person submitting the form. This part may not be completed by non-parent/legal guardians without the signed permission (Part A) of the student.

If your child is not a dependent as defined by IRS standards, we will only be able to release information about his/her financial and academic records if he/she completes Part A of this form. In the case of parental divorce or separation where only one parent claims the child as a dependent, Florida International University grants equal access to financial and academic records to the other parent if the information is completed in Part B. Exceptions to this rule include a court order that is a legally binding document stating otherwise.
