Log onto my.fiu.edu. There are two ways to access your Financial Aid Course Auditor:

Select Academic Advising

Select Financial Aid

Select Financial Aid Course Auditor

To create a new request, you must select Financial Aid Course Auditor.

If you believe there is an error in the indicated eligibility of one or more of your courses, you can submit a Request for Review by clicking here.

How to: Create a New Request:

The screenshot shows the 'Course Auditor Request for Review' form. The left sidebar indicates the current step is '1 Acknowledgment In Progress', with '2 Select Classes Not Started' and '3 Review Classes Not Started'. The main content area is titled 'Step 1 of 3: Acknowledgment'. It contains a confirmation statement: 'By submitting this request to review, I confirm that this course applies to my officially declared major, second major, minor, or Honors program reflected in MyFIU before the start of the term.' Below this is a section 'I understand that financial aid does not cover:' with a bulleted list: 'Certificate-only courses', 'Graduate school prerequisites', 'Courses outside my declared program', and 'Third attempts of the same course'. A final statement reads: 'I understand that approval does not guarantee financial aid eligibility and that I must meet all other aid requirements.' A button labeled 'I have read and understand' is visible on the right, with a hand cursor icon pointing to it.

Step 1: Review the acknowledgment, then click I Have Read and Understand.

Step 2: View which courses are eligible for financial aid and which are not. If a course is marked as not eligible (X), but you think it applies to your declared program, you may submit a Request for Review by checking off the course and clicking add. Note that you may select more than one course for review.

The screenshot shows the 'Spring Term 2026 Undergraduate' course selection screen. The left sidebar indicates the current step is '2 Select Classes In Progress', with '1 Acknowledgment Complete' and '3 Review Classes Not Started'. The main content area is titled 'Step 2 of 3' and contains the instruction: 'Select class(es) toward your financial aid applicable and course has not been reviewed'. Below this is a table of courses with checkboxes for selection and 'Add' buttons. A hand cursor icon points to the 'Add' button for the first course.

and-eligible to request review. Courses with a red "x" are not populating as part of your degree requirements and will not count toward your financial aid-eligible maximum number of times allowed for financial aid. Courses with a green check mark are degree applicable and included in your financial aid calculation, unless otherwise noted. A "?" indicates the course has not yet been reviewed and should update within 24 hours.
